Nejprve si přečti text dopisu, který píše britský chlapec do Čech. Dostal odtud adresu na někoho, s kým si začíná dopisovat. Pak zodpověz dvě sady otázek, které najdeš za textem.

Dear Tom,

Hi! I'm your new penfriend from Smallbridge, a village near Oxford. My full name is Richard Welsh, but they call me Rich. I'm 10 years old.

I live with my parents and two sisters in a big detached house. Most people in Britain live in a house. Our house is a three-bedroomed house. My sisters share one of them.

There are two photos in the letter. One of me, my sisters Lizie and Emma, their friend from school Fiona and our dog Ben. We are all playing in the garden. Our garden isn't big, but there are many nice flowers in it. And there's also one tree there, too!

In photo number 2 you can see Fiona's parents, my parents and grandparents with a dog. But it is not Ben. It's Ron, my grandpa's dog. He's sleeping under my granny's chair. Because it is my mum's birthday, you can see my father with a cake. He's putting the cake on the table. My mum is that tall and slim woman - she's standing behind my granny's chair. She has got long, blond hair and blue eyes. Fiona's mum is slim and she has got long blond hair too, but she is short. She is standing near my grandpa.

Well, now about me. I'm in class 6B at Smallbridge Fox School. There are 300 children in my school. My favourite subject is Maths, but I like English and History too. (Well, I'm bad at Science. That's why I don't like Tuesdays – we have got two lessons of Science on Tuesdays.)

In my free time I play football with my friends, I go swimming with my sisters, sometimes I read or play computer games. And yes! I watch TV a lot. My favourite shows are on Tv on Mondays. At 6:15 in the evening it's the programme Friends, at 8:30 it's Pop Stars. At 7:05 in the morning starts Good Morning Show. But I can watch it only to 8:20. At 8:35 I go to school. The start at 9:00.

Have you got any brothers or sisters? And what are your hobbies? Do you watch TV?

Bye for now, write soon!

Yours Rich
