This is an email from Christine to her new Czech friend John.

Dear John,

My name is Christine. I'm 10 years old and I live with my parents and my little brother Jacob in a detached house in Cambridge Street in London. My mum is a teacher of music at a primary school in our street and my father is a doctor. He works at a hospital in London.

We don't live in the centre of London, we live in a suburb. Our house isn't very big. There are a living room, a dining room and a kitchen downstairs. Bedrooms are upstairs. We have a two-bedroomed house. One bedroom is for my parents and one is for me and my brother. There's a little garden outside our house.

We share our house with Ginger and Fred. Ginger is our cat. She's 8 years old and likes to sleep. Fred is our dog. He's 2 years old and likes to play in the garden. Now he's in my room with me. He wants to play with me, but I can't, because I'm writing an email to you. ☺ Have you got any pets? My dad's family comes from India. His brother Raj lives with his family in Delhi in India. Raj has got one daughter, Alisha. I don't speak Indian languages, but Alisha speaks English very well. My mum's family comes from Britain. But her sister Anne doesn't live in Britain; she lives in Sydney in Australia. She is an opera singer. She hasn't got any children.

I go to Dogwarts Primary School, where my mum teaches. It's not far away from our house; it takes only 3 minutes to walk there. I go to school with my mum. The school day is from 8:45 to 3:30. We usually leave home at 8:30. After school I usually walk home with my best friend Sophie. Sophie lives in a house next to our house. Sophie and I do our homework together.

At school I like Art and Design and Geography, but I don't like Maths. Sophie is very good at English and French, but she doesn't like Maths, too. My mum doesn't teach me at our school, but I think she is a very good teacher. We don't wear school uniforms, so I can wear jeans and T-shirts to school, I like it! ☺ On Tuesdays I don't go home with Sophie. I have a piano lesson at a music school. It is far away, so I go there by bus. Sophie likes music, too. She can sing very well, but she doesn't play a musical instrument. Sophie and I like swimming. We go to a swimming pool at the weekends.

What about you, John? Do you play a musical instrument, or do you like sports? Please, write me about you and your family. I'm looking forward to your email!

Hope to hear from you soon,

Christine
