Přečti si text dopisu, který napsala Jane. Pak odpověz na otázky, které najdeš za textem.

Dear David,

Hi! My name's Jane. I'm 10 years old and I'm from a small town near Manchester. I live in a terraced house with my parents and my little brother Robert. We call him Rob. There are three bedrooms in our house. It's good. My friends share rooms with their brothers or sisters but I don't.

This is my usual weekday. I usually get up at 7. I have a shower and I brush my teeth. Then I get dressed. I wear my school uniform every day – a blue skirt, a white shirt and a blue jumper. I like my uniform. Then I have breakfast in the kitchen. My mum prepares breakfast for me and my brother every day. My dad drinks only a cup of coffee. He leaves home at 7:30. He works as a doctor and he's very busy.

After breakfast I and my mum help my little brother with getting dressed. We leave home at 8. My mum takes Rob to my grandparents' house. They live in a house next to our house. Then she goes to work. She's a teacher at a secondary school. She teaches French. Her school is far away so she takes a bus to work.

I go to a primary school. It's in the city centre next to a museum. It takes only ten minutes to walk there from my house. I go with my friends – Alice and Anna. They are sisters and they live in a detached house opposite our house.

My lessons start at 8:30 and finish at 2:45. I like French and History lessons at school but I don't like Maths. We have lunch at school at 12:30. I have a packed lunch. On Monday and Wednesday I have my piano lessons in the afternoon. On Thursday I sometimes play tennis with my friend Alice. When I get home I usually do my homework. We have a lot of homework. We have dinner at 6:30 and then I usually watch TV, listen to music or read books. My brother goes to bed at 8. I go to bed at 10.

Today is different because it is Saturday and I don't go to school on Saturdays. Today is a big day because it's my brother's birthday. He's three years old. We are having a party. My mum is baking a cake and my dad is playing with Rob in the garden. I am helping my mum with the cake. Oh, the doorbell is ringing. My grandma and grandpa are coming. It's a great day today.

Bye for now!

Yours Jane
