Here is an e-mail from Daisy to her new Czech friend Anna. Anna learns English at school. She is very good at it. Daisy can't speak Czech – her letter is in English. There are three photos in her mail, too.

Hello,

I'm Daisy. You can see me in 2 of 3 photos. My full name is Daisy Cook. I live in a semi-detached house with my parents, sister Jane and a baby brother Rob in a small but nice town Warton. My parents work here in a bank.

In photo number 1 I'm at school. We wear school uniforms at school – all girls wear grey skirts, white shirts, blue jumpers and jackets. And we can wear only black shoes – boys wear black shoes, too. And they wear grey trousers, white shirts with blue ties and blue jackets. I don't like my school uniform! My sister also doesn't like it.

I can wear my favourite clothes only after school : usually jeans or trousers and colour T-shirts or sweatshirts. I don't like dresses and skirts, I don't wear them often in my free time, but my sister likes skirts a lot.

Next photo shows me in front of the station. My town isn't very big, but there's a museum, a library, a school, two supermarkets, many small shops, a restaurant and a post-office here. In the photo I'm in front of the station because I'm going to the next town, Carnforth. There is a big sports center in Carnforth. You can play squash, volleyball, table-tennis and tennis there or you can swim in one of the two pools.

My granny and aunt Kelly with her family live in Carnforth. I and Jane visit them in their big detached house on Tuesdays when we go swimming. Swimming is my hobby. We often meet aunt Kelly in the swimming pool with her students – she is a teacher. She teaches PE and Maths. You can see her in photo number 3.

Well, you can't see only her there, but also her husband Tim - my uncle - and their children, my cousins. They are in the garden. The tall boy with glasses is Nick, he is 14 this year. (I'm only 12.) He is playing with Nelly, his eleven-year-old sister, and Spot. Spot is my granny's dog. But Nick and Nelly have got pets, too. Two nice hamsters, a cat and 2 budgies. Nelly teaches them to speak! The green budgie is a girl and she can say hello and bye. The yellow budgie is a boy. He can't speak.

I love my family and I love holidays. Every summer we go together with my aunt's family to Ireland. We are normally 2 weeks there, but this year we are planning to be there 3 Daisy weeks. Uncle Tim is from Ireland, so he visits his family and old friends. Tim is a doctor, he works in a hospital. I want to be a doctor when I grow up, too. What do you want to do? Do you want to study?

This is all for today. I'm really looking forward to your mail. Please, send me some pictures of your family. Have you got pets? Write also about your school – do you wear uniforms? Are they nice? What subjects do you like?

Hope to hear from you soon,

Yours, Daisy
