8. Pozorně si přečti text a zodpověz otázky na další straně, které se k textu vztahují.

David, Peggy and Jane are 13-year-old cousins; their English fathers are brothers. The children are on holiday in a nice town in the Czech Republic. They usually go to France in summer, but this year they are in Olomouc.

David and Peggy are twins. Their full names are David Mark Grant and Margaret Megan Grant. Peggy is short for Margaret. Jane's full name's Jane Dorothy Grant, but her friends call her Dot. Dot is a nickname from her middle name Dorothy. Jane has also got one brother, Benjamin, but he isn't on holiday in Olomouc – he is at home in London, because he's only two years old.

Why are they on holiday in the Czech Republic? Jane's mother and her mother's parents are Czech. So Jane and her cousins visit Jane's grandma and grandpa. Jane can't speak Czech, they speak only English at home in Britain. But her grandparents can speak not only Czech, but they speak English and German very well. Grandma teaches English.

What do the children do in Olomouc? Every morning they swim in the pool in the garden. Then they have breakfast. After breakfast they play in the garden when it's sunny or they go to the sports centre when it rains. They play tennis or table tennis there. Sometimes they stay at home and read or watch a DVD. Grandma teaches at a summer school on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Grandpa is at work every weekday.

After lunch the children usually go to the town centre. Sometimes they visit a museum, a gallery or they go shopping to the market or to a shopping centre. They can go to the cinema, too. There are many nice cafés and restaurants in the old town. The girls like going there because they can have coffee and a snack or something small to eat there. But David usually doesn't go with them. He goes to Mc Donald's because he likes hamburgers.

On Saturdays and Sundays the children and Jane's grandparents visit many interesting places: old Czech towns, castles or they walk in the country. They are planning a visit to Prague, too. They can visit Prague Castle and the Zoo there.

At the moment they're at home, because it's raining. What are they doing? Peggy and Jane are writing postcards to their parents and friends. David is watching TV, a football match. He likes watching sports – but he also likes playing sports: cricket in summer and rugby in winter. Sometimes he goes swimming and plays tennis and table tennis with his friends. His sister doesn't like cricket and rugby. She likes tennis and swimming and at school she plays netball.

What about Jane's grandparents? What are they doing now? They are also at home. Grandma is cooking and grandpa is writing an e-mail to Jane's parents. He's writing that all children are O.K. and happy, what they usually do and what their plans are.
